

Ambulating with a Cane

Nurse 1: Mr. Smith we're going to take a few steps with your new cane. We've got a four legged cane. It is nice and stable... more stable than just the regular cane. We've adjusted it for your height. Does that feel comfortable? What you're going to do is move the cane forward and then you're going to move your weak leg and then your good leg.